As was initially announced in January 2020, the Macy’s Department Store located in the Nittany Mall is closed permanently.

May 29, 2020 – Act 23 of 2020

Act 23 is signed enabling the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board to auction the one (1) Category 4 license that was previously associated with the Mount Airy Casino Resort bid.

September 2, 2020 – Successful License Bid Identifies Centre County Location

The Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board conducts the auction for the Category 4 casino license with two (2) bids being submitted. Philadelphia based investor Mr. Ira Lubert, whose company operates as SC Gaming OpCo LLC, was deemed the successful bidder. Mr. Lubert's bid identified the location of this new casino as anywhere within a 15-mile radius of Unionville Borough, Centre County. This initial location zone included significant area within 13 of the 14 municipalities in Centre County that did not "opt-out".

January 2021 – Bally's Corporation Announces Partnership with SC Gaming OpCo LLC

Bally's Corporation announced that it has signed an agreement with SC Gaming OpCo LLC to develop the planned $120 million mini-casino in Centre County. While the specific location was not named, the Bally's press release stated it would be located 'near the Nittany Mall.'

Late January 2021 – College Township Receives Zoning Evaluation Request

College Township received a request to evaluate its zoning regulations to determine if a gaming establishment would be permissible at 2901 East College Avenue (formerly Macy's). Staff acknowledged that a gaming establishment was permissible under the Township's current zoning ordinance.

March 2, 2021 – College Township Received Local Impact Report Identifying Location

College Township received via certified mail a statement from the Ballard Spahr Law Firm in Philadelphia formally transmitting the Local Impact Report and identifying the location of the proposed casino at the former Macy's at 2901 East College Avenue, State College, PA. The letter also indicates that the casino will offer 750 slot machines, 30 table games, a sportsbook, a restaurant and entertainment facilities.

July 28, 2021 - Cordish Companies Files Suit

Cordish Companies filed suit in the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court (under the name Stadium Casino) seeking to cancel the September 2, 2020 bid made by Mr. Lubert and subsequently accepted by the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board.

September 1, 2022 – Council Requests Second Legal Opinion

In response to correspondence received from the community, College Township requested a legal opinion from the Township’s solicitor related to any potential legal and/or financial ramifications of sending a letter to the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board.

September 22, 2022 – Executive Session of Council

Council met in Executive Session with the Township Solicitor, Township Manager and Assistant Township Manager to discuss the Solicitor’s legal option.

October 6, 2022 – Regular Meeting of Council

On October 6, 2022, Council discussed the opinion issued by the Solicitor, potential next steps and took public comment. A motion was made to send the correspondence and the minutes related to the casino received since the close of public comments on June 12, 2022, to the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board with a note stating what is in the contents was offered at the conclusion of the discussion.

Prior to the vote, the Solicitor opined that with Council sending a this correspondence as a body, it may not be construed as public comment but as a formal action of Council to deny or delay

The motion subsequently failed in a zero (0) in favor, five (5) opposed vote.

Later in the same meeting, due to some confusion over the initial vote, Council reconsidered the same motion. The motion subsequently failed in a one (1) in favor, four (4) opposed vote.

November 16, 2022 – Anticipated Date for the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board to Hear the Petition for Intervention offered by Stadium Gaming LLC.

The Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board was scheduled to hear arguments on the Petition for Intervention on SC Gaming OpCo LLC’s license application submitted by Stadium Gaming LLC on October 19, 2022. Given the number of filings offered by Stadium Gaming LLC and SC Gaming OpCo LLC, the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board opted to delay this hearing date.

This hearing is anticipated to occur at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board, which is November 16, 2022.

Date To Be Determined – Second Public Hearing by Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board

Following the conclusion of any action related to the Petition for Intervention, the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board will schedule a second public hearing on the license application to be held at a later date in Harrisburg. Testimony at that public hearing is limited to parties to the proceeding including:

- SC Gaming LLC;
- Office of Enforcement Counsel/Bureau of Investigations and Enforcement, and;
- Stadium Gaming LLC, but only if granted intervention.

A final decision on the license application will be rendered following the second public hearing.
